

Phone : 0471-2557227 (Office)
email: registrartcmc@kerala.gov.in www.medicalcouncil.kerala.gov.in

THE TRAVANCORE-COCHIN COUNCIL OF MODERN MEDICINE COMBINED COUNCIL, BUILDING, RED CROSS ROAD, THIRUVANANTHAPURAM, KERALA - 695 035

No.C2-27931/2019/MC/CME

Date: 10/01/2020

To

Dr. Kiran Gopal
Organising Secretary Biomypath
Souparnika (H), K.P IX/8A,
AKG Nagar Road, Peroorkada.P.O
Thiruvananthapuram - 695005.

Sir/Madam.

Sub:- Allotment of Credit Hours for CME Programme on the subject Biomypath
Ref:- Your request dated 11/12/2019

I am to inform that your request has been considered and it was decided to grant 1 ½ Hrs (One and Half hours) credit time for the CME Programme on the subject Biomypath conducted by Department of Biochemistry, Microbiology & Pathology Dr. SMCSI Medical College, Karakonam, Thiruvananthapuram at Library Basement Hall, Dr. SMCSI Medical College, Karakonam, Thiruvananthapuram on 15th January 2020. A report regarding the programme conducted, along with the name and registration number of the Organizing Secretary. List of participants and their Travancore - Cochin Medical Councils Registration Number and a copy of the certificate issued to the participants should be furnished to the Council within one month from the date of the programme. Also the scanned copy of the above details along with the list of participants and their TCMC registration number in Excel format is to be forwarded to our official mail id, so as to grant individual credit points to each participant. You are requested to issue the certificates to the participants only during the last hour of the last day of the CME Programme. Surprise inspection of the venue by a representative of the Travancore-Cochin Medical Councils will be done subject to the condition that registration to the foreign faculties shall be obtained from Medical Council of India. (Format of the excel document to be send via email is attached herewith).

Yours faithfully,

REGISTRAR

8/1